

THE ENVISANT DIFFERENCE

It's Been an Exciting Quarter!

Wonderful things have been happening here! To start, Envisant was named CUSO of the Year by the National Association of Credit Union Service Organizations (NACUSO). It's an honor that highlights our dedication to bringing value to credit unions and their members.

One important way we bring value is through unique partnerships, like our current one with Curql. It brings credit unions with assets between $100 million to $1 billion the opportunity to jointly invest in transformative fintech they can utilize to better compete in a tech-heavy marketplace. This partnership, along with many others, is part of Envisant's agile, forward-thinking strategy. In fact, every one of our partners, including you, is an invaluable part of the Envisant Difference.

Thank you!
